A RIVER NAMED Denva meandered through Satpuravan.

Animals had to ferry across it by taking a boat.

Baddy Jackal used his boat to ferry animals across the river. But he was greedy and sly by nature.

A fare of 10 rupees was fixed by King Sher Singh for each person to avail the facility of crossing the river by boat but Baddy Jackal charged Rs 20 instead. In rainy season when the river was overflowing, Baddy would charge whatever he felt like.

The jackal would make passengers sit in his boat and ask them for money on reaching the middle of the river.

Making of a Bridge

If anyone refused to pay, he would threaten to throw him in the river.

Frightened animals had no choice but to give him the desired amount.

One day, Cheeku Rabbit came from Champakvan to meet his friend Whity Rabbit in Satpuravan.

When the boat reached the middle of the river, Baddy asked Cheeku for 20 rupees.

Cheeku protested, “Fare for crossing the river is 10 rupees then why are you charging more?”

“Baddy threatened, “Just pay up quietly or I will throw you in the river.”

Cheeku got scared with Baddy's threatening as nobody supported him in the boat. Animals paid what Baddy demanded.

Cheeku reached his friend Whity's house. Whity welcomed Cheeku with joy.

Seeing Cheeku's hung face, Whity asked, "What happened?"

Cheeku was wild, "Nobody in your land opposes injustice. Nobody has the guts to refuse to pay 20 rupees instead of 10 rupees.

"When I refused to pay, nobody in the boat seconded me."

"Everyone is scared of him because he threatens to throw the animal in the river who refuses to pay. Good that you paid him the fare he asked," said Whity.

by Aparna Majumdar

Cheeku was surprised, “Does no one complain about this?”

“Baddy is wicked. He would not make the animal sit in his boat who complained about him. He is the only one who can ferry you across the river by his boat because there is no other means of crossing the river,” Whity said.

“Why don't all you animals join together to make a bridge on the river. This will finish Baddy's bullying too,” Cheeku suggested.

“It is a good idea but it is the king's job to get the bridge made on the river,” Whity avered.

“It is not so. Animals of the forest should get together to do good work.”

“But it is no joke to make a bridge on the river,” Whity said.

“Surely, it is not a joke but it is not impossible too," Cheeku tried to encourage them.

"How?" Whity asked.

Next day, Cheeku asked all the animals of the jungle to gather under the banyan tree.

"If all animals gathered here do some voluntary labour, we can make a bridge over the river," Cheeku explained.

The animals liked the idea and were ready.

Cheeku said to Gajju Elephant, "Brother, you are the stronger amongst all of us, so you will bring large wood. Banti Monkey along with his friends will break wood from the trees and small animals will take them to the river. Chunnu Mouse will dig sand with his friends. Every small and big animal will work according to his ability to build the bridge."

All the animals of the jungle together started working to make the bridge. In no time the bridge was ready.

King Sher Singh was invited to inaugurate it. He thanked Whity Rabbit who brought together all animals for the job.

Whity said, "Your Majesty, the onus of building the bridge goes to Cheeku. He was the one who suggested making a bridge over the river in order to get rid of Baddy's bullying."

The king was very happy at this. He invited all animals for meals to his palace on this occasion.

Problem of crossing the river was now taken care of.

Not only animals of Satpuravan but nearby jungles were also happy.

Now, they did not need Baddy Jackal's boat to cross the river. ●

Revenge

"SIR, TOMY had rung up," Inspector Moggy Dog of Secret Police saluted and informed.

"Who Tomy? The one who keeps a watch on the cats?"

by Munnu Lal

Doggy Dog, head of dogs, asked.

"Yes sir, he informed that some dog has kidnapped Catty, the queen of cats," Moggy said.

Doggy asked again, "Didn't he tell you which dog has kidnapped Catty Cat?"

"No sir, Tomy did not know. But he is sure that by now that dog must have killed Catty Cat," Moggy was sure.

"No...." Doggy screamed and jumped up from his seat, "it must not be so and if it is so, it will be very bad."

Paplu Dog asked, "But why sir, this is good news for us. Catty had built a strong cordon around the cats. It was very difficult for any dog to go inside.

"She had given you too a beating, remember, your life was once in danger because of her. Still you have sympathy for her.

Irritated Doggy said, "No, no, it is not like that. I have no sympathy for her.

"How forgetful you are? Have you forgotten my pledge? I had promised myself that such a cunning and clever cat will only be finished by me. I had already proclaimed it."

"Yes sir, we remember," all dogs said together.

"Mr Moggy," Doggy called out.

"Yes sir," Doggy replied.

Mincing no words Doggy said, "Lay a trap with your spies on all corners of the town. Find out who has kidnapped Catty Cat."

"Whoever gets Catty to me, will get his desired prize. But if he kills her, I will not spare him. He will be hanged. One more thing. If by evening that dog is not found, you too will not be spared. You will be hanged too."

"But sir, this work might take weeks. Then why hang me? This is injustice," Inspector Moggy pleaded.

Doggy again screamed, "Be careful, you have all become shirkers. You just want to sit and eat. I don't want to hear any excuse from you. In any case I want that dog by evening here or get ready for the noose. Go fast."

Inspector Moggy, in a tiffy, called a meeting of all spy dogs and told them everything. He said, "Now it is costing my life, friends. If I am not able to find any clue about the dog till evening, I will not live to see tomorrow's sun.

"Spread yourself in the entire dog colony. The work should be done by evening."

"Ok, boss," everyone said in one voice and proceeded for the work.

Inspector Moggy was himself supervising and heading the 'Dog Search Mission'. The spy dogs were encouraged by his presence.

They combed the entire dogs colony but were not able to find any clue of the dog.

Moggy was highly disturbed. The sun was about to set. He was almost in tears.

He got jittery and ordered lashing of the dogs.

The whole colony was in panic and all the dogs pleaded for their life. But nothing affected Moggy. After almost rendering many a dogs lifeless, Moggy zoomed on an old dog.

All of a sudden 2 police dogs arrived and caught Moggy tightly. Arresting him they said, "The day is over, inspector. Now you will be hanged."

By then a full battalion of police dogs came.

“Take this inspector to the leader. The head is very angry.”

Police dogs brought Moggy dragging and produced him in front of Doggy. A large crowd of spectator dogs collected to see what was to happen.

Moggy requested, ”Please forgive me, sir.”

But Doggy did not listen and hanged him. The onlookers went back home.

But then everyone saw Tomy who was limping and advancing towards them with 2 dogs, supporting him.

Tomy fell on Doggy's feet and cried, “Please forgive me, sir.”

“After all, what is wrong with you?” Doggy asked.

Tomy said, “Sir, it was not Catty Cat who was kidnapped. Instead, she had kidnapped me.”

"What?" Doggy was taken aback.

Tomy said, "Sir, she got me beaten up so badly that I was in a bad shape. Then she forced me to talk to Inspector Moggy giving him false information."

"Actually, Catty Cat wanted to take revenge from inspector, who had once killed Catty's sister. Since then Catty was dying to take revenge from him."

Doggy, the head, felt very bad.

All the dogs present there stood with hung faces. ●

Giraffe and Me

Once I was travelling so far and so far,
I met an accident with a giraffe.
He lifts me with his long and long neck,
I was shocked and surprised at this act.
I fell from his neck,
Fell into a small lake.
With a 'splash',
But then only I saw something.
I felt happy when I know,
I was slapping on my bed.

Taipei is the second tallest building in the world. It was built during 1994-2004. It has 101 floors. Its height is 1,670.60 ft.

Will you make friends with me?

by Dr. K Rani

KINOO CROW, Minky Cat and Chinki Deer were very close friends. Other animals of the jungle were highly surprised with friendship between 3 different types of animals. All the 3 met in the evening and narrate the whole day's experience to one another.

Their friendship was a matter of jealousy for Neenu Vixen. She was always on a look out for creating a rift between the 3 friends. One day, seeing Kinoo Crow all by himself on the tree, she went to him.

"How are you, Kinoo?"

"Very well, how are you?"

"Good. Tell me some news about the jungle and around. You go flying to far away lands often."

"You are right. I feel nice knowing about everyone," said Neenu.

"Same here. Actually, you and me are considered the cleverest animals of the jungle who are generally informed about everyone and everything," Neenu said.

"You are absolutely right."

"I am quiet surprised about your friendship with Minky and Chinki."

"But why?" Kinoo asked.

"What a difference there is between you and them," Neenu tried to instigate.

"Friendship rests on faith and confidence. I have faith on them and they on me. I like their innocence."

"Will you make friends with me?" When Neenu offered, Kinoo looked at her in surprise and replied, “I will think.”

Kinoo was not impressed by Neenu's sugarcoated talks. She made a face and left.

Kinoo understood her cleverness and had a hearty laugh.

The irritated vixen then went to Minky Cat and said, “Good morning, aunty.”

“Good morning, Neenu. I have seen you after a long time.”

“I live here only but don't get to meet you quiet often.”

“Do keep coming sometimes.”

“I try but am scared that some friends of yours may get upset with you.”

“Whom are you talking about?”

“Kinoo Crow and Chinki Deer.”

“Why should they be upset? They are quiet sensible.”

“I am surprised about your friendship with them. You are not comparable to them. You are sensible and they.....”

“Friendship is based on faith not brains. They have faith on me and I have faith on them.”

“Will you make friends with me?” as Neenu asked, Minky replied immediately, “I will think.”

Neenu was now no longer interested in her. She wanted to move out from there as soon as possible. But she did not want to be a loser and wanted to take another chance at it.

She then went to Chinki Deer and said, “Hello Chinki.”

“How are you, Neenu?”

'Very well. You have forgotten me in your friends’ company.”

"No, it is not so. Your thought just slipped. How are you here?"

"I was just passing by and thought of meeting you."

"That was very nice of you. What news about the jungle?"

"You must be getting all news from Kinoo."

"Yes. We meet every evening."

"I am surprised about your friendship."

"Why?"

"Oh, that clever Kinoo Crow and Minky Cat and you the innocent sprightly deer."

"Friendship is based on love. Whatever they maybe, I love them and they love me. We cannot even think about being unfaithful to each other."

"You and me are big animals of the jungle. Together we can do a lot," Neenu said.

"I don't think like this."

"Stay with me and you will understand it. Say, will you make friends with me?" when Neenu offered, Chinki went and stood far. She gave her a look as though it was unbelievable for her.

"Why are you looking surprised? Tell me, do you like my friendship?"

"No," and Chinki ran away.

Chinki's innocent reply was a straight one to the cleverness of the vixen. With the talks of the 3 friends, Neenu Vixen for sure understood that she was not welcome amongst them and that her efforts to break their friendship would not succeed as all the 3 loved one another and had tremendous faith and believe in each other.

After that Neenu did not ever go to them. ●

Christ, the Redeemer

On the Mt. Corcovado in Rio do Janerio, Brazil there stands a grand statue of Jesus Christ.

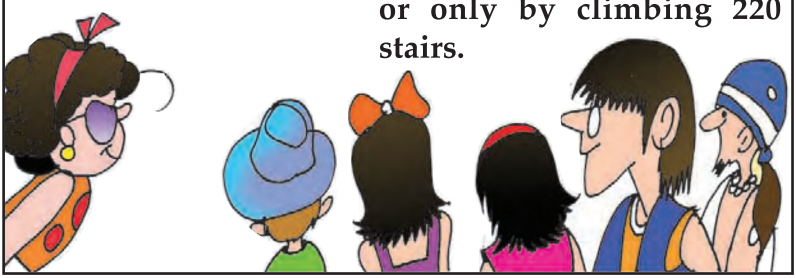

This statue of Jesus Christ is made up of soapstone and concrete. It stands 30 ft tall and is known as the Christ, the Redeemer overlooking the city with open arms and showering its love.

The statue was erected in 1921 to commemorate the Independence Day of Brazil. It was designed and erected by the famous local engineer Heitor da Silva.

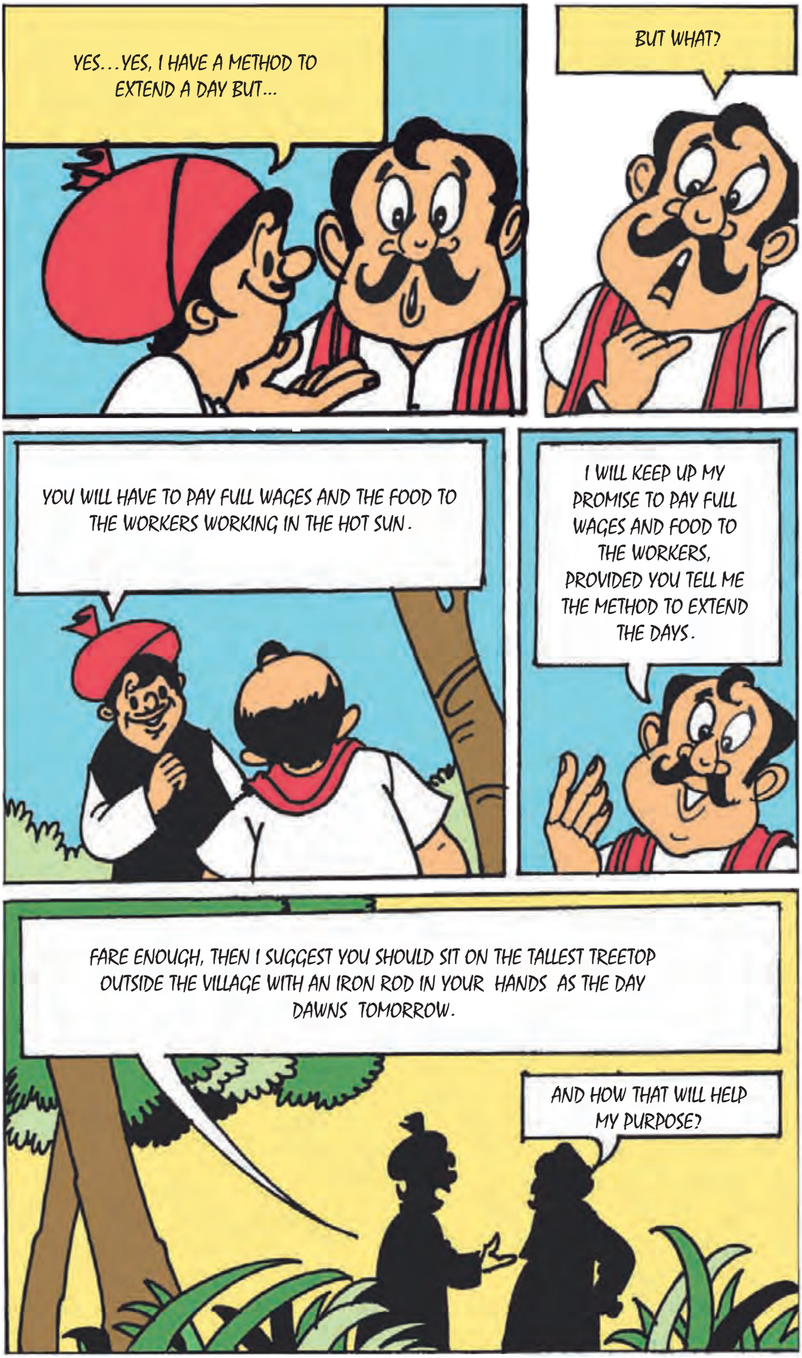

This statue has a huge prayer hall in the basement, which can accommodate 150 devotees very easily.

This beautiful statue can be approached by train or only by climbing 220 stairs.

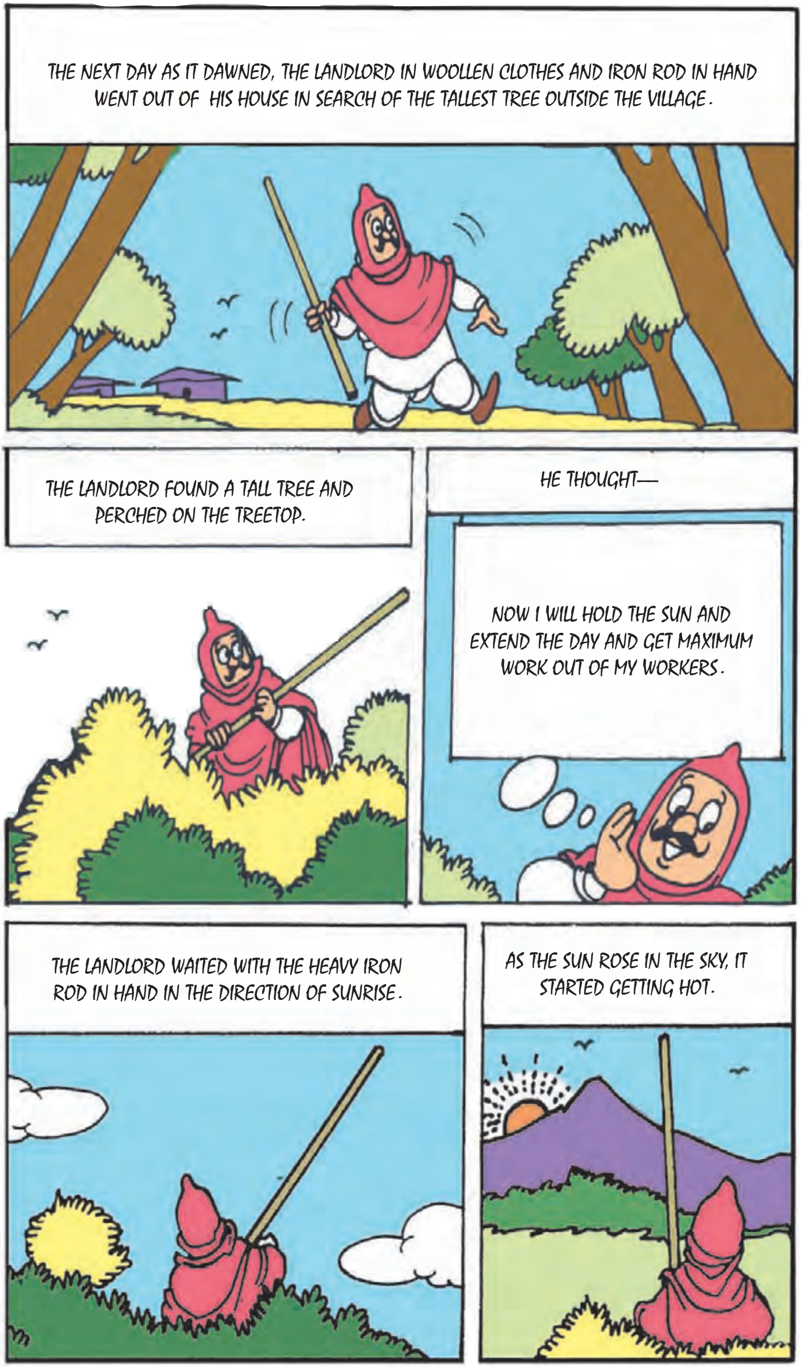

EXTENDED DAY
BY KHALIL KHAN
A RICH LANDLORD LIVED IN A VILLAGE. HE WAS VERY MISER, GREEDY AND CRUEL.
HE USED TO MAKE HIS WORKERS WORK IN HIS FIELDS BEYOND THEIR NORMAL CAPACITY.
AND HE PAID THEM VERY LESS WAGES.
THE LANDLORD THOUGHT—
IF THE DAYS GET EXTENDED, I CAN MAKE THE WORKERS WORK FURTHER MORE.

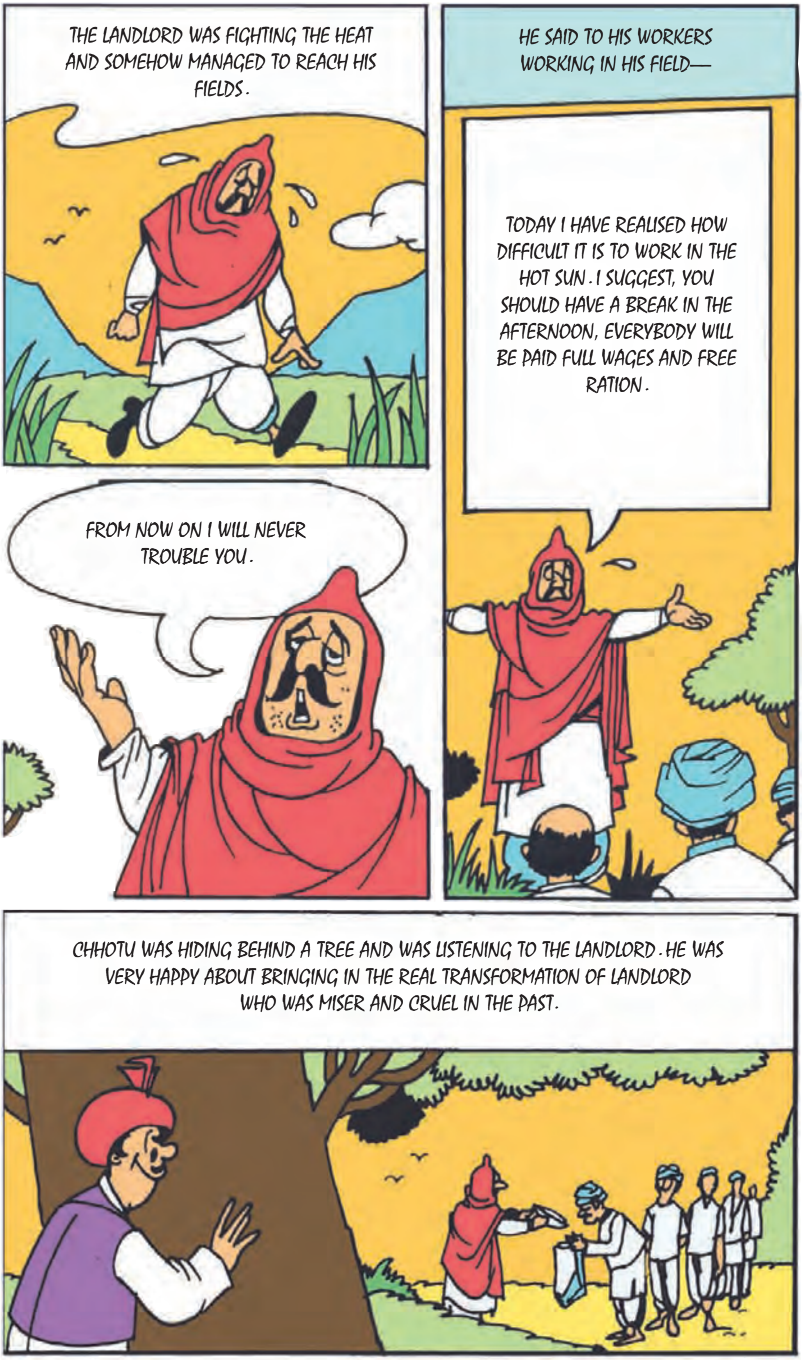

THE LANDLORD STARTED SEARCHING FOR A MAN WHO COULD TURN NORMAL DAY INTO EXTENDED DAYS.
THE MOST INTELLIGENT FARMER OF THE VILLAGE CHHOTU FARMER CAME TO KNOW ABOUT THE LANDLORD'S DESIRE.
CHHOTU THOUGHT—
GREEDY LANDLORD IS MAKING POOR WORKERS WORK A LOT. HE HAS TO BE TAUGHT A LESSON.
CHHOTU CAME TO THE LANDLORD.
I HAVE HEARD THAT YOU ARE LOOKING FOR WAY OUT TO EXTEND A NORMAL DAY?
YES...YES, YOU HAVE HEARD IT CORRECT. CAN YOU SUGGEST A WAY OUT TO EXTEND A DAY?

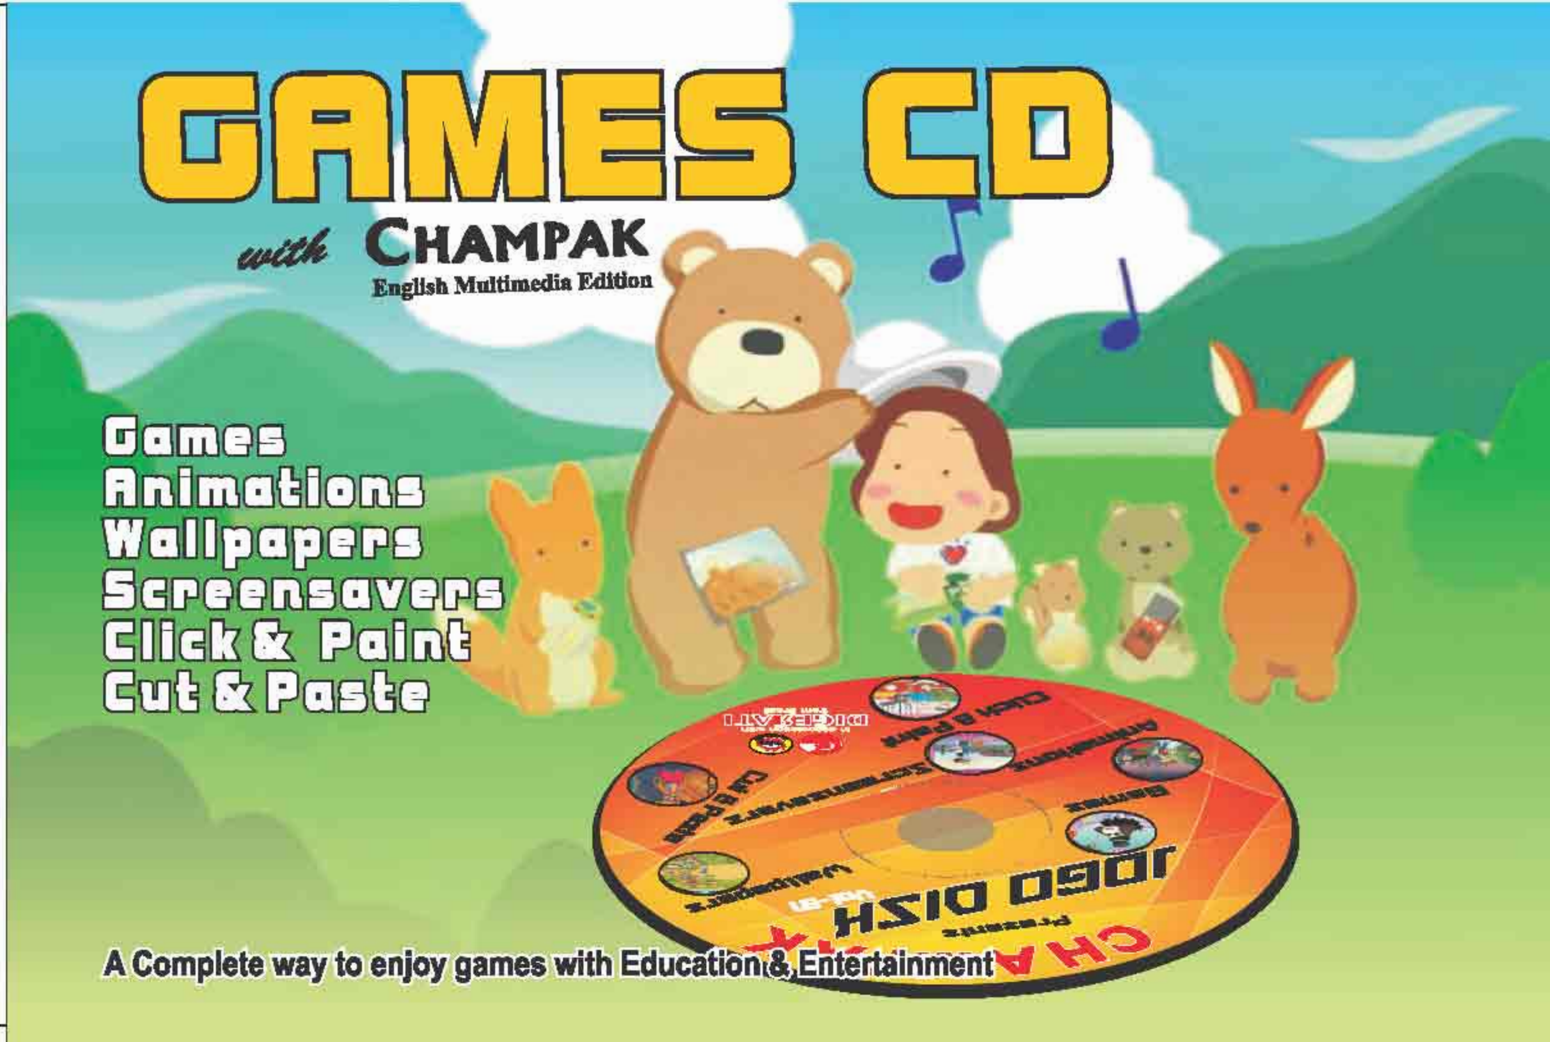

YES...YES, I HAVE A METHOD TO EXTEND A DAY BUT...
BUT WHAT?
YOU WILL HAVE TO PAY FULL WAGES AND THE FOOD TO THE WORKERS WORKING IN THE HOT SUN.
I WILL KEEP UP MY PROMISE TO PAY FULL WAGES AND FOOD TO THE WORKERS, PROVIDED YOU TELL ME THE METHOD TO EXTEND THE DAYS.
FARE ENOUGH, THEN I SUGGEST YOU SHOULD SIT ON THE TALLEST TREETOP OUTSIDE THE VILLAGE WITH AN IRON ROD IN YOUR HANDS AS THE DAY DAWNS TOMORROW.
AND HOW THAT WILL HELP MY PURPOSE?

THE SUN WILL BE STATIC AND YOU CAN HOLD THE SUN AND IT WON'T MOVE AHEAD. AUTOMATICALLY, THE DAY WILL GET EXTENDED.
THE LANDLORD QUICKLY BELIEVED CHHOTU AND HE WAS INSTANTLY DELIGHTED.
CHHOTU SAID—
AND YOU HAVE TO WEAR WOOLLENS WITH THE IRON ROD.
I WILL GET ON TO THE JOB RIGHT AWAY. BEFORE THE SUNRISE TOMORROW, I WILL GO TO SIT ON THE TALLEST TREE.
RIGHT, I WILL DO EXACTLY WHAT YOU HAVE SAID.
THE LANDLORD REACHED HOME AND ARRANGED FOR THE IRON ROD AND WOOLLEN CLOTHES. HE WENT TO SLEEP VERY EARLY.

THE NEXT DAY AS IT DAWNED, THE LANDLORD IN WOOLLEN CLOTHES AND IRON ROD IN HAND WENT OUT OF HIS HOUSE IN SEARCH OF THE TALLEST TREE OUTSIDE THE VILLAGE.
THE LANDLORD FOUND A TALL TREE AND PERCHED ON THE TREETOP.
HE THOUGHT—
NOW I WILL HOLD THE SUN AND EXTEND THE DAY AND GET MAXIMUM WORK OUT OF MY WORKERS.
THE LANDLORD WAITED WITH THE HEAVY IRON ROD IN HAND IN THE DIRECTION OF SUNRISE.
AS THE SUN ROSE IN THE SKY, IT STARTED GETTING HOT.

THE LANDLORD FELT BADLY EXHAUSTED AS IT WAS GETTING HOT. HIS FINGERS WERE PAINING AS HE WAS HOLDING HEAVY IRON ROD.
THE LANDLORD FELT THAT THE DAY WAS GETTING EXTENDED.
THE LANDLORD WAS TIRED AND HE THOUGHT—
UNNECESSARILY I HAVE GOT INTO HASSLE OF EXTENDING THE DAY. NORMAL DAY WAS ANY WAY BETTER.
THE WORKERS WORKING IN THE FIELD IN THE HOT SUN MUST BE GETTING TIRED LIKE ME.
ALL THE WRONG NOTIONS OF THE LANDLORD WERE REMOVED IN THE HOT SUN. HE THREW AWAY THE IRON ROD.

THE LANDLORD WAS FIGHTING THE HEAT AND SOMEHOW MANAGED TO REACH HIS FIELDS.
HE SAID TO HIS WORKERS WORKING IN HIS FIELD—
TODAY I HAVE REALISED HOW DIFFICULT IT IS TO WORK IN THE HOT SUN. I SUGGEST, YOU SHOULD HAVE A BREAK IN THE AFTERNOON, EVERYBODY WILL BE PAID FULL WAGES AND FREE RATION.
FROM NOW ON I WILL NEVER TROUBLE YOU.
CHHOTU WAS HIDING BEHIND A TREE AND WAS LISTENING TO THE LANDLORD. HE WAS VERY HAPPY ABOUT BRINGING IN THE REAL TRANSFORMATION OF LANDLORD WHO WAS MISER AND CRUEL IN THE PAST.

Arpita and Arunima

by Neelam Rakesh

TALKING TO the winds 5 scooters entered the thick jungles of Pilibhit. A group of 6 boys and 4 girls was going merrily to the jungles.

Suddenly, Rima interrupted, "Do you remember the way? We have come quiet deep inside the jungle. The guest house is not seen anywhere."

One by one all 4 scooters halted. "You are right. Till now we should have reached," Raman quipped.

"Let us go this way and look," Peter said.

Wandering here and there, they reached a river. Arpita said, "We have come for a picnic. This place is very beautiful. Instead of getting lost in the jungle, it is better to stay put here and have our meals on the banks of the river. If the petrol finishes in searching the guest house, we will be stranded in the jungle."

"Look at the ruins, forget the river. It is appearing like a horrifying cave. Maybe, it is haunted. Let us go a little further," Rima suggested.

"What world do you live in? A haunted house!" Arunima expressed surprise.

"Friends, we are going into the 21st century and you are still talking of ghosts," Akhil laughed while taking down baggage.

Soon, the jungle started reverberating with the sounds of their music, loud laughs and two-in-one music player.

"I am hungry," Rima said, as she sat on the sheet that they spread to sit. Arpita too came and sat next to her.

"Even me."

After having finished eating, someone laid down to stretch, some one listened to music and someone told stories.

Getting up Akhil said, "Come on Peter, let us go till the river."

By then Arunima stood up.

"What happened, sister?" Arpita asked.

"Come Arpita, let us go to see that deer from close."

"But it will run away," and Arunima got up asking, "Will anyone of you come?"

"You sisters are fond of seeing animals. You only go," Rima quipped with dancing eyes.

"Don't go deep inside," Nikhil interrupted.

"Ok, dear conservator sir," Arunima laughed.

Something that they saw sent shock waves in the minds and heart of the 2 sisters. They stood frozen. In a quick reaction Arpita pulled Arunima inside the bushes.

Four armed men were forcing their friends inside the ruins at the point of their guns. Both sisters sat unmoved. When all of them vanished inside the ruins, Arunima said, "What do we do now?"

"Be quiet, and move from here," Arpita whispered.

"Leaving everyone behind?" Arunima was surprised.

"We will come back bringing some help. What will we be able to do in front of armed people?"

"Well, let us reach the scooters somehow...."

"What are you saying, sister. They will shoot us if they hear the scooters' noises. Let us move out quietly on foot."

Arunima again whispered, "But we don't know the way. Where do we go?"

"Follow me without any sound," and Arpita started moving behind slowly.

"How far can we drag ourselves, Arpita?"

"Till that bush."

On reaching the bush, Arpita stood up and said, "Now the ruins are not visible. Let us go away from here as far as possible quickly."

"We don't even know the way. What if we get lost?" Arunima was worried.

"We have already lost our way. Now the only way is to follow the river. Let us walk along the trees. Somewhere the river will meet the road surely."

"It will be dark soon."

"Keep walking, sister. There is no choice."

After walking for long, they saw a broad path. "Arpita, it is going dark. But we can still see a little. Come on, let us run fast on the road. It will lead us somewhere, at least."

"Wait sister, we are in the terrorist zone of the jungle. We will be clearly visible on the road. Night is approaching and it is time for terrorists on the move. We are near the road. Let us plonk on a high tree for the night."

"Are you crazy. At home everyone will be worried. And what about our friends?"

"It is wiser to reach a little delayed than never to reach at all. As for our friends, we will be able to help them if we are able to save ourselves."

"Good enough," Arunima gave up and both the sisters climbed a tall tree.

"Don't doze away, sister."

"I am almost dead with fear and you are talking of sleeping."

The night somehow passed hearing sounds of wild animals. Both the sisters woke up in the morning with a jolt. They were close to some habitation but the place was unknown.

They quickly got down from the tree and ran. Finding out the nearest police post, they reached there.

Hearing their story, the post incharge informed the police superintendent. Soon, they were taken to the collector of the district to whom they narrated the incident.

"Well done children, you 2 have done a wonderful job and acted smartly. We had the information of 10 children going for picnic. But the terrorists have claimed kidnapping 8 children."

"Uncle, free our friends from the terrorists."

"Can you take us there?"

"Yes, uncle."

"Can you identify any one terrorist from them?"

"No, their faces were covered."

"Well, ok."

The place told by the girls was raided by the police and PAC together. The police were shocked. A place that looked like a dilapidated structure was a full fledged hideout of the terrorists. Many of them were arrested.

All the children were saved. Lots of arms were confiscated.

All the newspapers on the next day were filled with stories of Arpita and Arunima's bravery. People thronged to their houses to congratulate them. Both the sisters were welcomed by people of Pilibhit.

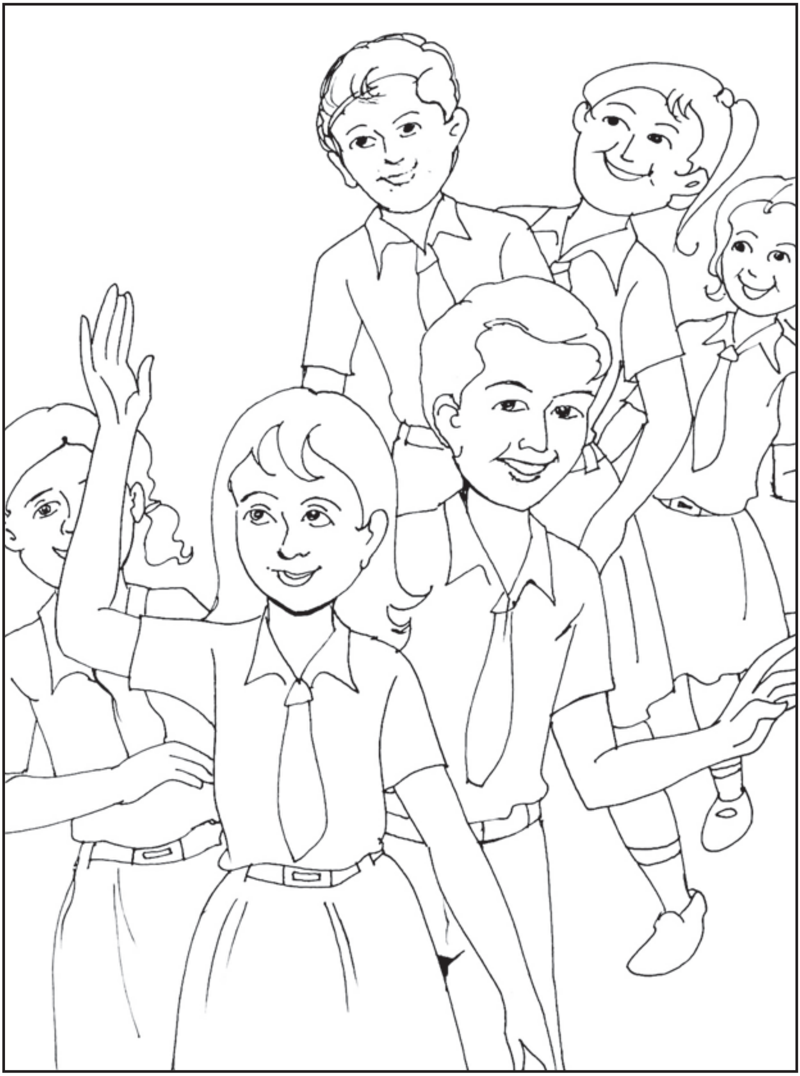

Their parents were proud of them. They had suddenly become stars of the town. ●

Who is Big and Who is Small?

by Jayanti Rangnathan

PUSI MONKEY was sitting on the top branch of a mango tree. He was eating juicy mangoes. It was summer time. As he finished his mango and threw it down, he heard the roar of Anku Tiger, “Who is throwing a stone on me?”

Pusi yelled from top, “Anku, it is not a stone but a mango seed. I did not know that you were sleeping under the tree.”

Anku got wild, “Pusi, what do you think of yourself? You are such a small animal that you will fly off just with a puff of air. How dare to argue with me?”

Pusi hung down from the branch, “No animal in the jungle is big or small. If you have a big body, I have a smart brain.”

Anku got angry and with a roar caught Pusi's tail and spinned him far away.

Pusi's leg got hurt. Anku said with pride, “You saw the result of arguing with me. You are no comparison to me.”

Pusi did not say anything but was upset. He was not arrogant but felt like teaching Anku a lesson.

Pusi had a habit of breaking juicy mangoes from trees and distributing them to animals in the jungle.

That day, when he went out to distribute mangoes, he saw some circus people digging earth and spreading a net.

He became cautious. He thought that like last years this year too the circus people have come to catch animals.

He cautioned them not to go towards the river to the green bushes where the circus people had laid their net.

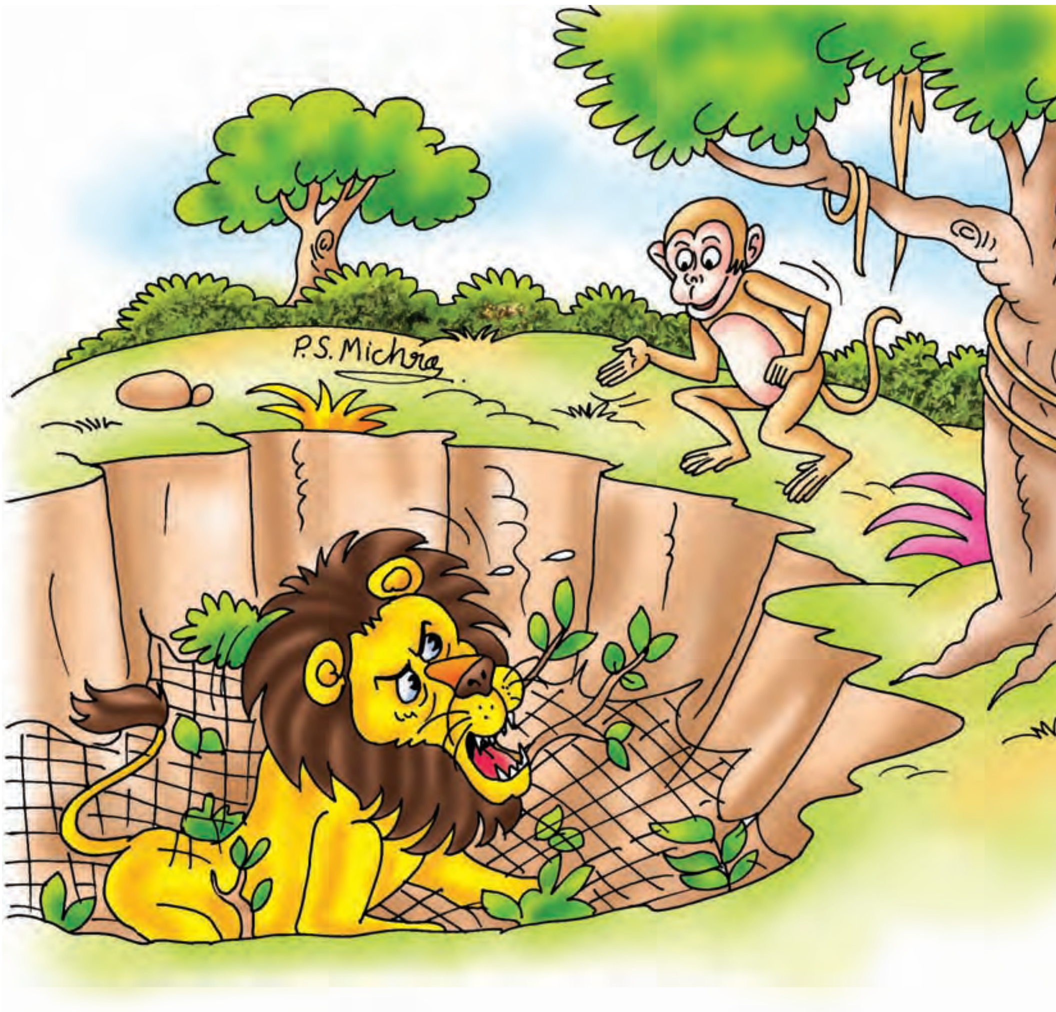

When Manda Elephant heard about this, he became worried and said, “Has anybody informed Anku Tiger about it? Everyday he goes to the river banks near the green bushes to sleep."

Pusi Monkey immediately said, "Yes, I have told him."

The next day early morning Pusi climbed up a tree near the green bushes. In the afternoon Anku came to drink water at the river and then proceeded towards the green bushes.

As he stepped into the bushes, he fell deep down in the net with a thud.

The tiger roared and roared but no one came for help. Other animals of the jungle were alerted by Pusi not to go near the bushes.

Anku's roar slowly died down. Pusi was enjoying himself sitting on the tree. In the evening he got down. He heard Anku groaning from inside the net.

Pusi peeped and asked, "Anku, how did you get trapped in the net? Did no one tell you that the circus people had laid a net in the bushes?"

Groaning with pain Anku said, "No Pusi, no one told me anything. The circus people will come and take me with them."

Pusi teased him, "Anku, you are so strong, why can't you shoo them away with puff of air?"

Anku did not reply. Pusi said, "Look Anku, no animal of the jungle wants any animal to be taken away by the circus. But can an animal like you do any good for anyone in the jungle? You bully small animals like us. It is good that you stay away from us."

Anku spoke, "Pusi, I am like this only. It is my nature. I am a tiger. But now I feel that it would have been good if I were some small animal like you. I could have at least been your friend."

Pusi went away. He had to reach home before dark.

On the way he met Manda Elephant and Raju Tiger who were searching for Anku.

Seeing Pusi Manda asked, "Anku has not returned home yet, Pusi. He was not well last night."

Pusi was quiet. Raju Tiger cried, "Yesterday night Anku hurt his legs while saving Manda's son Rony from coming under the train. I don't know why Anku has not come yet today."

Pusi looked at Manda and whispered, "I hope he did not go towards the green bushes. Yesterday night I forgot to tell him that the circus people had laid their net there."

Raju Tiger patted Pusi's shoulder, "I know that some days earlier Anku had caught your tail and spinned you over. But today you have said this and proved that you are a good animal."

Pusi took them to the green bushes. It was already midnight. None of them could see anything.

Animals of the jungle kept guard the whole night.

The next day Pusi and his other monkey friends got down the pit holding each others' tails. Anku was in a bad condition. All of them brought him on top.

As Anku came out, all animals shouted in glee clapping.

Before the circus van could take Anku, all animals had gone from there.

Walking with the help of Pusi, Anku thought that he would now not call any animal big or small. ●

GUTTI SQUIRREL was very lazy. She loved sleeping the whole day in the hollow of the tree. But she was very ambitious.

'Wish I may become the queen of birds.

'Wish I have a big palace.

'Wish I was as beautiful as a peacock.

'Wish I may sing like a cuckoo.'

She would all the time think like this and get upset.

One day, she was sleeping. In no time a hazy light spread around her and gradually turned into a very beautiful fairy. She asked the squirrel, "Will you make friends with me?"

"Why not, I will surely be your friend. Then we will play together and enjoy together," the squirrel extended her hand of friendship to the fairy.

Gutti Squirrel

Suddenly, Gutti Squirrel remembered something.

She wondered, 'What a fairy she is! She does not carry a magic wand. I had heard that fairies can do anything with their magic wand.'

Champak

"What are you thinking?" fairy asked Gutti.

"Nothing much. But where is your magic wand?"

The fairy instantly lifted her hand in the air. Next moment a magic wand appeared in her hand.

and a Fairy

"You have not even worn a crown like other fairies," the squirrel said in a complaining tone.

The fairy again waved her hand in the air. Soon, she had a glittering crown on her head.

"Now it is ok. You are now looking very beautiful," Gutti was pleased.

'Now, I am sure all my wishes will be fulfilled,' Gutti thought.

She asked the fairy, "Can you make me the queen of birds with your magic wand?"

"Why not?"

"Can you get me a crown like yours?"

"Get good dresses along with the crown," as the fairy said, Gutti was on top of the world.

"Can you give me a big palace?"

"Surely," the fairy said.

"Can you make me as sweet as a peacock."

"Surely, after all, you are my friend."

"Can my voice become as sweet as a cuckoo's?"

"Why not?" When the fairy confirmed, the squirrel's happiness knew no bounds.

"Now I am getting late, friend. I must go. I will come back tomorrow," the fairy said.

"Ok, please come back tomorrow," and the squirrel bid her a goodbye, waiting for her to come back the next day.

She thought, 'Surely, the fairy came from fairyland. What must be fairyland like? Who all must be there in her family?'

Suddenly, she woke up from sleep hearing her friend Munmun Maina. Munmun was shaking her, "What is the matter, Gutti? Are you all right? How are you sleeping so late today?"

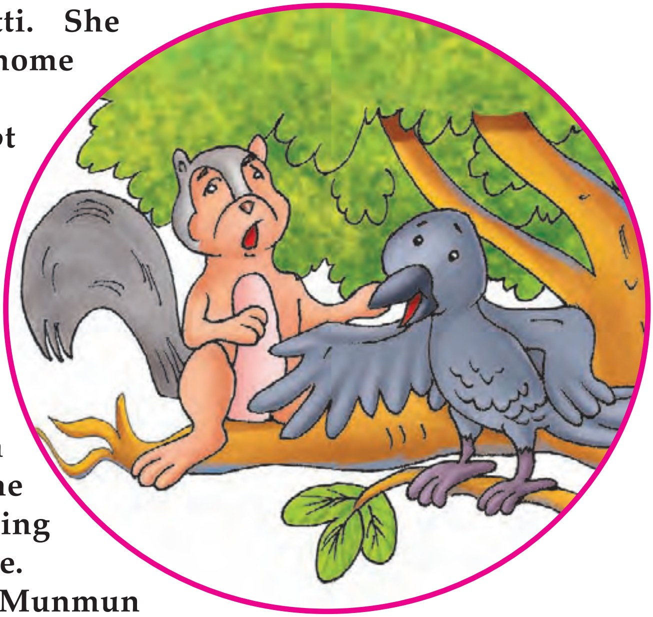

Gutti Squirrel told Munmun about the fairy. Munmun laughed. Maina was sensible. She said, "The fairy would not return. It was just a dream. Fairies don't exist. It is just people's imagination."

"No, no, it can't be like that. The fairy will return today. She has promised me," Gutti Squirrel was adamant.

Maina did not insist. She knew it was not easy to convince Gutti. She went home disappointed.

Gutti kept waiting for the fairy for many days but the fairy did not return. The squirrel was upset so much so that she stopped coming out of her home.

One day, Munmun went to meet Gutti and forced her to come out.

"Now you stop thinking about the fairy. There is no fairy as such. It is just your false belief," Munmun explained to Gutti.

"Can I not become the queen of birds?" sad squirrel asked.

"You can surely. Consider the birds' sorrows and troubles as yours. Help others in the times of need and they will themselves make you their queen," Maina said.

"Looks like I will have to live my entire life in this hollow of the tree. My dream of living in a big palace will never come true," the squirrel cried.

"It is not like that. If you help others then they too will help you willingly. All the birds together can make a very big palace," Munmun consoled the squirrel.

"But how do I become beautiful like a peacock?"

"Real beauty lies in the heart and not the body. Someone, who does good deeds, is actually beautiful," Munmun said.

"I will now no more be able to sing beautifully like a cuckoo," as the squirrel said, Maina replied, "Surely, you cannot sing as sweet as a cuckoo. Her sweet voice is nature's gift to her. If you wish to stay like a lion, it is not possible. Every living thing has its limitation and they must understand that."

"You are right, Munmun. I have now realised that seeing a fairy was just a dream. I will now fulfil my wishes by my efforts," said Gutti. ●

Ikku and Poisonous Honey

by Jamshed Azmi

IKKU WAS intelligent and quick-witted since childhood. When he grew up, his parents sent him to a school under a Buddhist Monastery in Kyoto—the old capital of Japan. He was the youngest of all children studying in the school.

Being friendly by nature, he was loved by everyone.

One night as Ikku passed from near his teacher's room, he heard some sounds. He whispered to himself, “I must peep and see.”

As he peeped inside, he was shocked to see that the teacher was taking out something from a black pot.

“How is Guruji having honey so late at night? Wish I too could get some of the sweet honey to taste,” Ikku licked his lips.

Then he ran to his friends and told them, “Friends, Guruji is having honey all by himself. Why don't we also demand some for us?”

“Yes, let us go,” all children agreed.

All of them opened the door of Guruji's room and entered inside.

Guruji was taken aback at seeing the children suddenly entering his room. He hid the pot of honey behind himself and said, “You people have not slept till yet? How have you come to me at such late hours?”

“You have always taught us that we must share everything that we eat. Then why are you having honey alone?” Ikku questioned.

“What honey...?” Guruji was nervous.

“The same that you have hid behind you. Give a little to us too,” Ikku's mouth was watering.

Guruji felt ashamed of himself. Giving an excuse he said, “So you are talking about this pot. Dear children, the pot does not have honey. This is medicine for the old. It is so dangerous that a child will die if he has it. That is why I cannot give it to you.”

Guruji did not want to share honey with them. So he made an excuse and sent the children away. Children went away disappointed. But Ikku understood that Guruji was telling lies. He was restless and kept tossing and turning in the bed.

Next day, Guruji went out as the sun rose. Seizing the opportunity Ikku said, “Friends, there is honey lying in Guruji's room. Let us all go and search for it.”

Ikku went in the room with his friends and smelling in one of the pots with his nose he screamed, “Wow! Honey. There is honey in the pot. Come, let us all eat.”

“But... but Guruji was saying that there is some medicine in it which is poisonous. No, I will not have it,” one of them said.

“Don't be afraid. This is real honey. Yesterday, Guruji told a lie to us. Just lick it and see,” Ikku suggested.

“No, no, we don't want to get into trouble,” all children were nervous.

“Well, don't have, I will have it all.”

Ikku started hogging it and in no time he finished half of the pot. His friends were surprised that the poison was not affecting him.

This made their mouths water too and they too asked for it. Ikku handed over the pot to them and all the honey finished soon.

“Ikku, you are great. You nabbed Guruji's lies so easily. It actually had real honey. But now be ready for a scolding. Guruji is about to come,” the friends said.

“Don't worry, I will tackle Guruji. Come, let us get cleaning the temple now,” Ikku smiled and said.

In the evening when Guruji returned, Ikku started howling.

Guruji asked, “What happened, Ikku? Why are you crying?”

“I have committed a mistake, Guruji. I have broken your expensive red plate.”

Guruji got wild hearing this. He said, “What have you done? That plate was given to me by my Guruji. Oh, how wonderful it was!"

"I knew that you would shout at me. So I have had the poisonous medicine in the pot for repentance. Now I am about to die. Please forgive me," Ikku was acting.

"Yes, Ikku is right. We cannot see Ikku dying alone. So we too have had the medicine in the pot," all the friends seconded.

Guruji was shocked and did not know what to say. He was unable to look into the eyes of children. He laughed, "Ha...ha...ha, children, no one from you will die because the pot had real honey. I had told you lies so that the honey may not finish. I had spoken lies. Please forgive me, children."

"In fact, we must ask forgiveness Guruji, because we also have not broken your expensive plate. This excuse was also made up because we were scared of getting scolding from you for having eaten honey," Ikku smiled and said.

Guruji laughed loudly and took the children in arms lovingly. ●

Pink Feather

MONU DUCK lived in a lake right in the midst of the jungle. One morning, she spotted a pink feather between her white tail feathers.

Rina Fish, who was swimming besides her, said, "Pink feather is very auspicious. You are very fortunate."

Monu was happy hearing this and believed it.

by Manoj Rai

She came out of the lake and found a packet of biscuits. “Wow! My luck has changed with this pink feather.”

She immediately called out her friend Bunty Dog.

“I have today found this biscuit packet because of my pink feather. Will you like to eat it with me?”

Bunty agreed. He said, “But I don't believe in luck.”

Monu disagreed with Bunty. Showing off her pink feather, she said, “Since I have got this feather, my luck has changed.”

After having her meals, Monu was going back into the lake when she saw Hanu Elephant cleaning the bushes in his garden.

“Good Morning Hanu, how are you?”

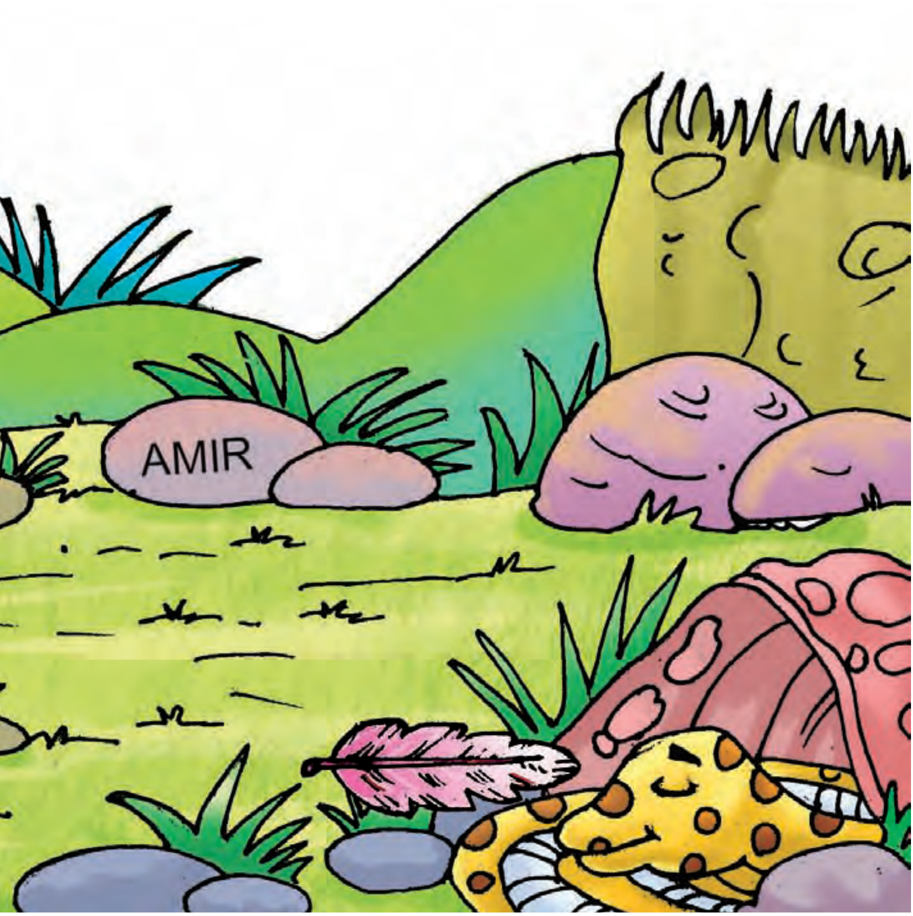

“I am good. How are you? You appear in a very good mood.”

Monu was, as if, just waiting for someone to ask. She promptly replied, “Since I have got this pink feather...”

Hanu Elephant smiled and moved ahead.

After waiting for a while, when Monu was about to leave, she got stuck in a bush. Hanu Elephant helped her out of it but then the duck's pink feather broke and got entangled in the bush. Monu burst out crying. She screamed, “O, my pink feather.”

“Don't worry, I will again stick it to your tail.” The elephant carefully pulled out the feather from the bush and stuck it with gum on her tail. Now

Monu was happy and moved ahead, thanking the elephant.

At a distance, Romi Goat was drying her hair under the fan in her verandah. Monu thought that Romi should also be told about the pink feather. She went to her and said, "You know sister, this pink feather……" and as she reached near the fan, her feather flew off with the pressure of the wind. She ran after the feather. The feather fell at the mouth of Kalu Snake's burrow. Now Monu was heartbroken. What would happen if at all the snake saw her? By then Bunty Dog came looking for Monu.

"Come on, go from here. If the snake sees us, he will not spare us," Bunty said.

But Monu did not want to go from there. She was worried about her feather. With the help of a stick she pulled out her feather and stuck it to her tail again.

In the meantime the snake saw her. He followed her. Monu and Bunty fled from there. But the snake kept following them. An idea struck Monu. He threw the pink feather away. The snake now went behind the feather the other side.

"Good, that we are saved," Monu heaved a sigh of relief.

Bunty cautioned, "If you had waited for your pink feather, you would have been in the snake's stomach by now."

Monu said, "You are right, friend. I uselessly thought this feather to be my lucky charm. If I had not given up on the pink feather, the snake would have devoured me."

Monu thanked Bunty and promised never to believe in superstitions. ●

TWO TINY fishes named Lissy and Fissy lived in the seas with their mother. One day, both were playing in the blue waters. While playing, they both reached near a river that was falling into the sea.

Seeing them mother cautioned, "Children, move away from the river stream. This river carries all the dirty water of the town. Fishes fall ill with this water.

"People living in the town are dirty. They throw dirt in water which pollutes it and makes it poisonous."

"Ok mother, we will move away from the water," and both obeyed.

Then both started searching for food on the shores of the sea.

Suddenly, a big wave pushed them far away on

by Jamshed Azmi

the sands. They got stuck in the pit of sand.

Finding herself in the pit Fissy said, "Uf, we have got stuck. There is very little water here. Soon, if another wave does not come, we will die."

A fisherman came by. Seeing beautiful fishes in the pit, his eyes brightened up. He murmured, "Wow! What beautiful fishes! If they are sold in the town, I can earn a lot of money."

Then he kept both the fishes in a small box and proceeded towards the town. There he sold them in a shop.

After some days the fishes reached a house from the shop.

Both were used to living in the vast seas and so were feeling uncomfortable and uneasy trapped in the aquarium.

One day, it was raining badly. Fissy and Lissy were both staring at the rain water. The owner of the house felt pity on them and he picked up the aquarium and kept it in the verandah in the open.

Return to the Seas

Fissy, suddenly hit upon an idea. She said, "Lissy, we can return to the seas. For this we will have to get out of the aquarium."

Lissy agreed. Both of them leaped out of the aquarium.

It was raining cats and dogs. Both of them went floating in the drain water and their journey to the seas started. The drains were flowing full and fast. So not too much time was taken to reach the main drain.

The drain water was dirty and black in colour.

This was making it difficult for them to breathe. But they did not lose hope. They kept moving in the direction of the water.

Suddenly, a snake came attacking them. Fissy screamed, “Run Lissy and save yourself. The snake wants to eat us up.”

By chance Lissy saw a bottle. She said, “Fissy, enter this bottle. The snake will not be able to get inside it.”

Both quickly entered the bottle. The snake tried getting inside too but could not. He wildly hissed and hissed in anger.

It soon understood that his effort was useless and he went away.

Fissy and Lissy were inside the bottle. The bottle was flowing towards the river along with the water.

The fishes did not try coming out. After some hours they landed up in the river.

They were very happy. Coming out of the bottle they started jumping in delight while flowing towards the seas.

The journey was boring and long but they were not complaining.

Finally after 2 days the river reached the sea. They were highly excited to be back and started searching for their mother.

Soon, they found her.

Mother immediately took them in her arms and said, “My children, where did you go? I searched for you everywhere.”

Fissy and Lissy told everything to their mother. Mother was surprised but proud of her daughters' bravery and courage. ●

"WHAT IS wrong? Why are you so upset?" Seeing Bunty Mouse sad, his wife asked.

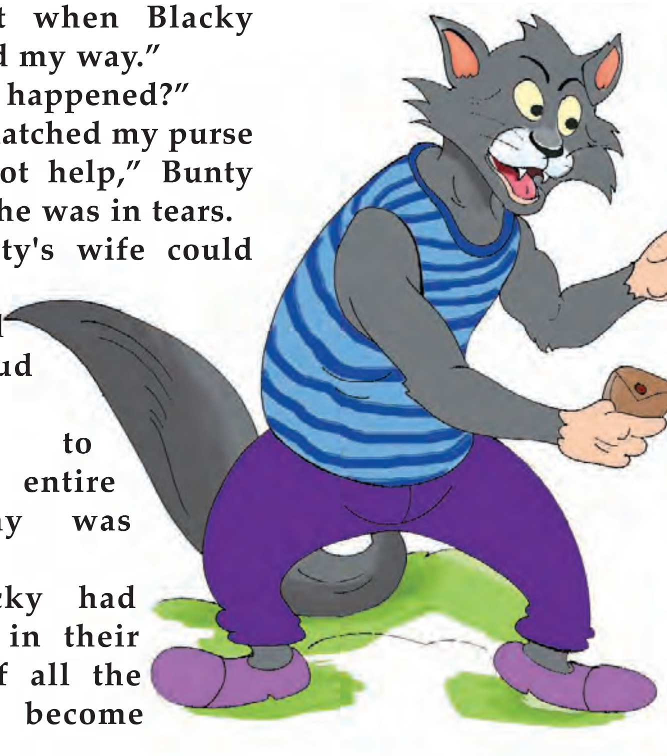

by Indrajit Kaushik

"What to tell you. I had got my first salary and was returning home with the money in my pocket when Blacky Tomcat stopped my way."

"Then what happened?"

"Then he snatched my purse and I could not help," Bunty explianed and he was in tears.

Before Bunty's wife could say anything, they heard Blacky's loud mewing.

Listening to Blacky, the entire mouse colony was frightened.

Since Blacky had come to stay in their colony, life of all the mice had become difficult.

They were scared and frightened all the time as they feared of his entering into their burrows any time.

This tension made many fall ill and many fled the colony.

Blacky had a good time. He

Lesson for Blacky

generally hid behind a bush outside the mice's burrows. As he would see a mouse, he would pounce on him.

Poor mice would quickly enter their burrows back to save their lives.

One day, it was Sonu Mouse's son's birthday and he had specially got a cake made for the party. Seeing the cake box in Sonu's hands, Blacky's mouth started watering.

"Let me have the cake or I will eat you," Blacky mewed bossily.

Sonu insisted politely that it was a birthday cake but Blacky did not listen.

Poor Sonu and his family were very disappointed.

"How long will we tolerate Blacky's bully?" Sonu spoke during a meeting of the mice.

"What can we do? We cannot harm him anyway," all the mice agreed with Sonu.

Old Whity Mouse stood up and spoke,

"There is no point in losing hope. As far as his strength is concerned, don't forget how Sweety Ant taught a lesson to the powerful elephant, much bigger than her, by entering his trunk."

All the mice listened.

"Uncle, you only suggest a way out of this trouble," Sonu requested Whity.

"Friends, we must act sensibly. When the enemy is much more powerful than us, we have to defeat him with intelligence," Whity explained his plan to his friends.

The mice were very happy and clapped. They were excited.

Everyone hailed Whity and all started working on the plan.

Working day and night the mice dug a tunnel from inside their colony. When they dug till a point that opened far beyond their colony, Whity made another plan.

"It is a 100 years since we have been living here. On this happy day we are giving a party. I want that you too join the celebration," Whity said to Blacky.

When Whity invited Blacky Tomcat, it was unbelievable for him.

"Knowing that I am your enemy you are still calling me to your party. What is the matter? I hope you are not planning anything behind my back," Blacky asked.

"We don't consider you our enemy. If you were our enemy, none of us would have been alive today," Whity said. "We will be too happy if you come."

Blacky was highly pleased, as he was greedy to feast on ready made tasty food. Blacky agreed. Whity then returned to his burrow and told everyone this news.

"Do as I have told you," Whity instructed Sonu and Monu.

Blacky also told Doggy Dog about to feast.

"Have you gone mad? What if those mice get together and kill you," Doggy Dog cautioned Blacky. "I suspect a foul play."

"What foul play? You are scaring me for nothing. They panic on just hearing my 'meaoooo.....' how can they harm me. If they do anything funny, I will not leave a single one alive."

Blacky ignored Doggy's precautionary advice as he was proud of his strength.

On the day of the party, Blacky reached the mice burrows all dressed up to find the place pitch dark.

“Welcome Blacky, come on in. There is no power. We are trying to swtich on the generator. You can come in straight,” a mouse’s voice was heard from inside.

As Blacky went deeper, on getting a signal from Sonu and Monu, other mice closed the mouth of the burrow with a big rock.

“Where are you all? Why cannot I see anything? Switch on the lights. I am feeling suffocated,” Blacky screamed angrily.

“Now Blacky you better get used to this suffocating darkness for ever.

“You have troubled us a lot. Now it is your turn to be troubled,” as Whity's words echoed, Blacky was shocked.

“Are you joking? Don't you know who I am? If I get annoyed, I will not spare anybody,” Blacky growled.

“Now there is no use talking all this. You are trapped. We are already out and safe in a place far away from you. Now you may rot here Blacky,” Whity said.

Blacky could not help. Shutting Blacky in the tunnel, the mice celebrated their freedom. All the mice thanked old Whity for having saved them from Blacky with his intelligence and quick wit.

Whity proved it that one can face any problem with his intelligence and sensibility. ●

IT WAS the morning hours of the school. Still there were 5 minutes for the bell for the morning assembly. The Principal of Champakvan High School, Blacky Bear was sitting in his room and was looking at the school kids trickling down in the school compound. He was amused at the innocent mischief of the children.

Suddenly, he saw Meeku Monkey walking down in the school compound with the help of his creches. He had taken the admission in the school last week only. His father was transferred to Champakvan very recently.

The moment Bhappy Rabbit and Hippy Deer saw Meeku, they started teasing him 'Meeku cripple, Meeku cripple, for his disability.

Blacky Bear was watching everything through the window. Other children followed Bhappy and Hippy in following Meeku Monkey.

Blacky Bear saw that Meeku Monkey was in tears. He was trying to hurry up towards his class. In the effort Meeku Monkey slipped on the smooth floor and fell down. Everybody started laughing loudly. Chinky Vixen helped Meeku Monkey up to his class.

Bell for the assembly went off. Blacky Bear was very perturbed at the rude behaviour towards their own classmates. Engrossed in these thoughts, he walked towards the assembly area.

Blacky Bear was very angry to the extent that he felt like thrashing his students to teach them a lesson before the entire assembly. But at the same time, he disliked to take any hasty step.

Every morning Blacky Bear arrived in his office very early. Time and again he observed that Bhappy Rabbit and Hippy Deer were still teasing Meeku Monkey who was physically challenged. The anger within Blacky Bear was brewing up fast.

He then observed that both Bhappy Rabbit and Hippy Deer bullied Nanhi Squirrel and teased her as 'tiny squeaky'. They even teased Pappu Elephant as 'fatso' and Blacky Cat as 'blindy' as the cat had an impaired vision.

Blacky Bear had been watching and tolerating the rude behaviour of his students for the past many days. Finally, he summoned their class teacher Hippo for a meeting. He said, "What sort of students you have in your class? What is your impression about Bhappy Rabbit and Hippy Deer?"

Hippo was taken aback and said, "Sir, both these students are big nuisance in the class. They are least interested in the studies. I have tried my best to correct but all my efforts have gone down the drain."

Lesson

Blacky Bear also shared his own observations about the rogue students with Hippo. Blacky Bear then shared his plan with Hippo about teaching a lesson to the rude students.

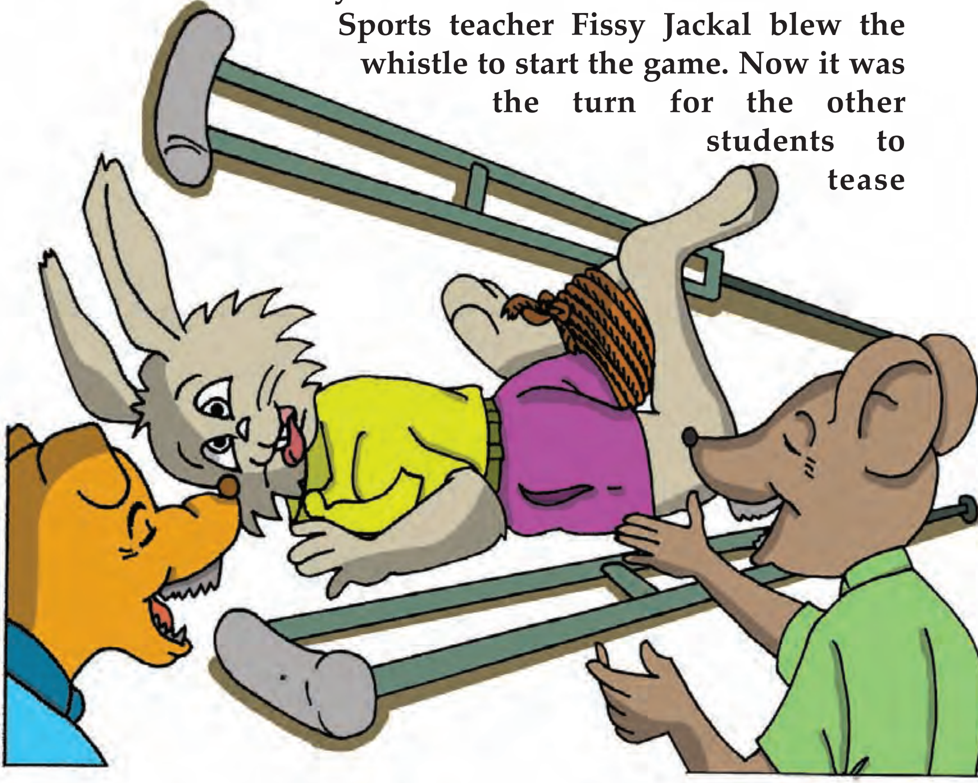

The next day, Blacky Bear made an announcement in the assembly, "I have decided to give you a break, as you students must have been bored with classroom studies. You all will play few games instead of studying today."

The students cheered the Principal for an interesting announcement.

Blacky Bear continued further and said, "First, we will have one-legged race. We will tie Bhappy Rabbit's one leg. He will be given Meeku Monkey's creches. He will keep running for next half an hour and try to catch maximum number of students."

Hippo tied Bhappy Rabbit's leg tightly and gave Meeku Monkey's creches.

Sports teacher Fissy Jackal blew the whistle to start the game. Now it was the turn for the other students to tease Bhappy Rabbit, 'Bhappy cripple, Bhappy cripple' and they were trying to instigate him to get angry.

Initially, Bhappy Rabbit enjoyed the game but soon he realised how difficult it was to run with one leg tied. He was tired within half an hour. He was getting angry at teasing by his own classmates. He even fell down many times and had hurt himself. He was not able to catch even a single student.

Half an hour later when Fissy Jackal blew the whistle to stop the game, Bhappy Rabbit experienced great relief.

Blacky Bear then announced, "Now we will have a game. We will blindfold Hippy Deer. He too will try to catch maximum number of students."

Hippy Deer was blindfolded and he started running as the whistle blew off. Hippy Deer was unable to run as it was all dark in front of his eyes. Like Blacky Bear, he too kept on falling again and again. Everybody laughed when he fell.

Soon, he was tired of running. When he banged into a tree, he was hurt badly and he started crying.

Blacky Bear once again announced, "I hope you must have enjoyed our new games thoroughly. I am calling Bhappy Rabbit and Hippy Deer on to the stage to share their experiences about the new game while they ran with leg tied and eyes blindfolded."

Bhappy Rabbit and Hippy Deer somehow managed to get on to the stage.

Bhappy Rabbit tried to speak in the low and tired voice, "Today for the first time I have realised how difficult it is to run around with one of your leg tied and to walk like Meeku Monkey with the help of creches."

Hippy Deer said, "And I have realised how difficult it is for Blacky Cat to see with an impaired vision."

Bhappy Rabbit said, "We apologise to both Meeku Monkey and Blacky Cat for uncivilised behaviour towards them."

Hippy Deer said, "From now on, we will never tease anybody for their any sort of disability, instead we will extend all our help to everybody and will rectify our past mistakes."

Blacky Bear saw that Meeku Monkey and Blacky Cat were in tears. He patted both the students who had been transformed into good students. He then looked at Hippo smilingly to tell him that their plan had worked successfully.

Their mission was completed and the clear message was well driven home without uttering even single word about their objective. ●
